FINAL ORDER

¶1 The appellant has filed a petition for review of the initial decision, which dismissed his involuntary resignation appeal for lack of jurisdiction after he withdrew his appeal. Generally, we grant petitions such as this one only in the following circumstances: the initial decision contains erroneous findings of

<sup>1</sup> A nonprecedential order is one that the Board has determined does not add significantly to the body of MSPB case law. Parties may cite nonprecedential orders, but such orders have no precedential value; the Board and administrative judges are not required to follow or distinguish them in any future decisions. In contrast, a precedential decision issued as an Opinion and Order has been identified by the Board as significantly contributing to the Board's case law. See 5 C.F.R. § 1201.117\(c\).

material fact; the initial decision is based on an erroneous interpretation of statute or regulation or the erroneous application of the law to the facts of the case; the administrative judge's rulings during either the course of the appeal or the initial decision were not consistent with required procedures or involved an abuse of discretion, and the resulting error affected the outcome of the case; or new and material evidence or legal argument is available that, despite the petitioner's due diligence, was not available when the record closed. Title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations, section 1201.115 (5 C.F.R. § 1201.115). After fully considering the filings in this appeal, we conclude that the petitioner has not established any basis under section 1201.115 for granting the petition for review. Therefore, we DENY the petition for review. Except as expressly MODIFIED to dismiss the appeal as withdrawn instead of for lack of jurisdiction, we AFFIRM the initial decision.

DISCUSSION OF ARGUMENTS ON REVIEW

¶2 The appellant, a GS-9 Program Specialist, resigned from his position effective October 1, 2015. Initial Appeal File (IAF), Tab 2 at 2. On August 15, 2016, he filed a Board appeal, alleging that his resignation was involuntary. IAF, Tabs 1, 6. On September 24, 2016, the appellant filed a pleading titled "Withdraw [sic] of appeal" through the Board's e-Appeal Online system, which stated, "Please withdraw my appeal." IAF, Tab 16 at 3. On September 26, 2016, the administrative judge issued an initial decision finding that the appellant had requested to withdraw his appeal, which removed the appeal from the Board's jurisdiction, and dismissing the appeal for lack of jurisdiction. IAF, Tab 17, Initial Decision.

¶3 Approximately 3 weeks later, the appellant filed a request to reopen an appeal dismissed without prejudice and a petition for review of the initial decision. Petition for Review (PFR) File, Tabs 1-2. In both filings, he asserts that his request to withdraw his appeal was filed in error and requests that his case be reopened. PFR File, Tab 1 at 3, Tab 2 at 3-4. He also asserts that he was “not allowed to speak with the judge and the agency representative via phone as previously told.” PFR File, Tab 2 at 3.

¶4 An appellant’s withdrawal of an appeal is an act of finality that removes the appeal from the Board’s jurisdiction. Lincoln v. U.S. Postal Service, 113 M.S.P.R. 486, ¶ 7 (2010). Generally, the Board will not reinstate a withdrawn appeal absent unusual circumstances, such as misinformation or new and material evidence. Page v. Department of Transportation, 110 M.S.P.R. 492, ¶ 5 (2009). A voluntary withdrawal, however, must be clear, decisive, and unequivocal. Id.

¶5 The record reflects that the appellant unequivocally expressed his intent to withdraw the appeal when he submitted a pleading through the e-Appeal Online system informing the administrative judge that he wished to withdraw his appeal. IAF, Tab 16 at 3. Our review of the record does not reveal any unusual circumstances that would warrant reinstating the appeal, and the appellant has not alleged any unusual circumstances in his petition for review or in his request to reopen. Rather, weeks later and without explanation, he merely asserts that his request to withdraw his appeal was submitted in error.

¶6 In light of the above, we find no basis to reinstate the appellant’s withdrawn appeal. To be consistent with the Board’s usual practice of dismissing withdrawn appeals as withdrawn rather than for lack of jurisdiction, we modify the initial decision to dismiss the appeal as withdrawn. E.g., Lincoln, 113 M.S.P.R. 486, ¶ 8. Further, we deny his request to reopen an appeal dismissed without prejudice because, as discussed above, his appeal was not dismissed without prejudice.

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS<sup>2</sup>

The initial decision, as supplemented by this Final Order, constitutes the Board's final decision in this matter. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.113. You may obtain review of this final decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(a\)\(1\). By statute, the nature of your claims determines the time limit for seeking such review and the appropriate forum with which to file. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\). Although we offer the following summary of available appeal rights, the Merit Systems Protection Board does not provide legal advice on which option is most appropriate for your situation and the rights described below do not represent a statement of how courts will rule regarding which cases fall within their jurisdiction. If you wish to seek review of this final decision, you should immediately review the law applicable to your claims and carefully follow all filing time limits and requirements. Failure to file within the applicable time limit may result in the dismissal of your case by your chosen forum.

Please read carefully each of the three main possible choices of review below to decide which one applies to your particular case. If you have questions about whether a particular forum is the appropriate one to review your case, you should contact that forum for more information.

(1) Judicial review in general. As a general rule, an appellant seeking judicial review of a final Board order must file a petition for review with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, which must be received by the court within 60 calendar days of the date of issuance of this decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\)\(1\)\(A\).

other protected activities listed in 5 U.S.C. § 2302\(b\)\(9\)\(A\)\(i\), \(B\), \(C\), or \(D\).
